

Confessions over my finances

Poverty is a curse, if you have ever been in lack you know what I'm talking about. This curse is defined as being hungry, thirsty, nakedness, and in want of all things. The word of God teaches us that we can have what we say. It also tells us to be a doer of the word. God calls us to be a good Stewart of what He has entrusted to us. As you confess these scriptures daily and apply the principles in the word of God, God's spiritual law will manifest in your finances. God's unmerited favor will open doors, give you wisdom, and inventions that will cause you to prosper in all that you do. Our part is to obey. He told Noah to build the Ark, He told Moses to go through the red sea, He told Joshua to walk around Jericho for seven days, what will He tell you?

The Lord is my Shepard I shall not be in want. Psalm 23:1

He takes great pleasure in the prosperity of His servant. Psalm 35:27

My God shall supply all my needs according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus. Phil 4:19
God has made all grace abound towards me, that I will always have all sufficiency in all things in abundance for every good work. I give not grudgingly or out of necessity but from a cheerful heart, for it is God who works in me both to will and to do for His good pleasure. 2 Cor 9:7-8, Phil 2:13

I am a sower, God is my supplier and He supplies seed to the sower, and bread for food.

Therefore every seed I have sown increases and bears fruit of righteousness. 2 Cor 9:10

Christ has redeemed from the curse of the law, having become a curse for me, that the blessing of Abraham might come upon me in Christ. I have received the promise of the Holy Spirit by faith.

Gal 3:13-14

For I know the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ that though he was rich, yet for my sake He became poor, That I through His poverty might become rich. 2 Cor 8:9

I give and it is given back to me, good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over will be put into my bosom. Whatever measure I give it will be given back to me. Luke 6:38

I obey the command of God not to be haughty, nor do I trust in uncertain riches, but in the Living God who gives me richly all things to enjoy! I'm rich in good works, and always willing to share, storing up a good foundation in heaven. 1 Tim 6:17-19

I bring my whole tithe into the store house, that there may be food in Gods house. Therefore God has promised to open the windows of heaven and pour blessings that I will not be able to contain, and He that has promised is faithful and will do it! Malachi 3:10, 1 Thes 5:24

I have no debt, I'm the lender and not the borrower, I owe no debt to anyone except to love my fellow man. Romans 13:8. Duet 28:12

All the blessings shall come upon me and overtake me, because I obey the voice of the Lord my God. The Lord commands the blessing on me and my storehouse and in all that I set my hand too. He blesses me in the land, the house, the church building, and in the business He is giving me. Glory to God! Deut 28:2,8.

I shall leave an inheritance to my children's children, and the wealth of sinners is stored up for me. Pro 13:22

Moreover, because I have set my affection on the house of my God, I have given to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house, my own special treasure of gold and silver. 1 Chron 29:3
